

English language entry requirements for Overseas Collaborative Partners

Students seeking entry to University programmes are required to demonstrate their English Language proficiency in line with the University's admissions requirements and English Language policy.

Each University programme will set out the required English Language level required to gain admission to the programme.

The English language entry requirements are as follows:

Undergraduate and Post-graduate Taught programmes

An overall English Language level equivalent to an IELTS score of 6.0 (or equivalent) with no lower than 5.5 in reading writing, listening and speaking

Postgraduate Research Programmes (including DBA)

An overall English Language level equivalent to an IELTS score of 6.5 (or equivalent) with no lower than 6.5 in reading and writing, and with no lower than 5.5 in listening or speaking

Acceptable Evidence of English Language Proficiency is as follows:

Applicants may automatically satisfy the English language entry requirements of the University, for academic study for all programmes, if they are considered to be native English speakers through citizenship of the following majority English speaking countries:

- Antigua and Barbuda
- Australia
- Bahamas
