

THOMAS WOOD PAPERS

Thomas Wood was born on April 30th 1919, in Battley, Yorkshire, the only son of Willie and Mabel Wood. Educated at Battley Grammar School, he went on to study at the University of Leeds, graduating with a BA first class honours in English in 1941. In 1945, he was awarded a BD from the same institution, and in 1947 he received his MA with distinction.

Wood became a deacon in 1943, and was ordained as a priest the following year. He was made Assistant Curate at St. Anne's, Worksop in 1945, and married his wife Joan that same year. In 1947, he moved to Mansfield Parish Church as Senior Assistant Curate, and remained there until 1952, when he was made vicar of Seascale.

In 1957, Wood left his duties as parish priest for a career in education. He was made Head of the Department of Pastoral Theology at St. David's College, Lampeter (now the University of Wales, Lampeter) in 1957. In 1977, he took up the post of Head of Department in Theology at the same institution, and in 1983 became Head of the Department of Theology and Religious Studies. Wood was also made Deputy Principal of St. David's College, Lampeter in 1971, and remained in the role until 1977. Throughout his period at Lampeter Wood held the position of D J James Professor of Pastoral Theology, and on his retirement in 1984, was made an Emeritus Professor by the University of Wales.

Wood was active on a various number of committees and investigative commissions, mostly organised by the Church in Wales. These include the Churches' Council on Gambling (1965-78); the Church in Wales Working Party on Marriage and Divorce (1972-75), of which he was Chairman, and the Church in Wales Advisory Commission on Church and Society (1973-85). Wood was an ecclesiastical judge, sitting at the Provincial Court of the Church in Wales from 1976, and a Bishop's selector from 1955 until 1966. He was also made Select Preacher at the University of Cambridge in 1961.

As a cleric and educationalist, Wood published variously. His articles can be found in Theology, Journal of Theological Studies and Trivium, amongst other journals. He contributed to the Dictionary of Christian Ethics in 1967, and authored several works, including English Casuistical Divinity during the C17th (1952), The Pastoral Responsibility of the Church Today (1958) and Some Moral Problems (1961).

He died on November 26th 1987.
